SOCIALIZATION PROCESS

Overview

- Socialization process
- Sources
- Self-concept
- The three identities used to structure our self-concept
- Ego-defense mechanism
- Strategies for changing self concept

Socialization Process

- Encompassing educational process
  - Values
  - Goals
  - Attitudes
  - Gender roles

Sources

- Family – being most influential in younger years
- Media – any form of mass communication
- Peers and friends – greatest influence during teenage years
- Teachers and school
- Child care providers

Gender Role Socialization

- Are there defined gender roles for men and women?
  - Taught what boys or men do
  - Taught what girls or women do
  - How do defined gender roles impact our Marines / Sailors?

Sources cont.

- Dr. Morris Massey's value programming
  - What we are now directly relates to when, and where, we were valued programmed
  - We are programmed with gut values by age 10
  - Values will not change unless a SEE occurs

Significant Emotional Event

- Birth
- Death
- Marriage
- Divorce
- Graduation
- Marine Corps

Self Concept

- Understanding self is critical to effectively interact with others
- Social interaction is one of the most important influences on ourselves

Three Identities

- Extant self
- Desiring self
- Presenting self

Self Concept Explained

- Concept of self is an ever-changing progressive activity
- Emotional / cognitive process
- Positive and negative reinforcements

Self Concept Explained

- Ego Defense Mechanisms
  - Blame
  - Denial
  - Rationalization
  - Reinterpretation

Strategies for Changing Self-Concept

- Soul searching
- Motivation to change
- Absence of defensiveness

Summary

- Socialization process
- Sources
- Self-concept
- The three identities used to structure our self-concept
- Ego-defense mechanism
- Strategies for changing self concept